Sol-Ark Gets ANOTHER New Headquarter Building. Bigger, Better, Cooler.

Last year, Sol-Ark moved into a new building in Plano, TX that was about 100,000 square feet. This was a much larger facility than we used to have, and we thought we'd be here for a while.... We've grown so fast, that we're now purchasing 2 new buildings in Allen, TX, that add up to about 300,000 sq.ft. in total! This has been an awesome improvement, and we're incredibly excited to move into our new home in Q1 of next year. For the City of Allen press release, click the button below.
